RECOMMENDATION / ACTION REQUESTED:

It is recommended that City Council recognize and extend Honor to the Life and Legacy of Jim Melvin.

Vision Statement: "A Community with Endless Economic Opportunities and Exceptional Quality of Life."

RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF EDWIN SAMUEL “JIM” MELVIN

WHEREAS, Edwin Samuel “Jim” Melvin lived a life defined by faith, family, service, and love, passing away peacefully on August 10 at the age of 91, surrounded by his devoted wife of 56 years, Susan Melvin;

WHEREAS, born on December 24, 1933, in Greensboro, North Carolina into a hardworking Greensboro family, Jim was the son of Joe and Virgil Melvin, who instilled in him the values of faith, perseverance, and community that shaped his life’s path;

WHEREAS, Melvin grew up in the Warnersville community. In 1956, he graduated from Greensboro Senior High School (now called Grimsley High School) and then attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, from which he graduated with a degree in business in 1959;

WHEREAS, Melvin commitment to faith was lifelong, as a member of West Market Street United Methodist Church where he taught Sunday school, served faithfully, and carried forward the Melvin family’s deep spiritual roots;

WHEREAS, Melvin dedicated his life to service through the Greensboro Jaycees, public office, banking, and as President and CEO of the Joseph M. Bryan Foundation, working tirelessly to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Greensboro and its surrounding communities;

WHEREAS, Melvin served as Greensboro’s Mayor from 1971 to 1981. He was the first Greensboro Mayor to be elected into the office by the public in 1973, during which he focused on education and economic development initiatives to foster greater prosperity in North Carolina’s third-largest city and the Triad region;

WHEREAS, Melvin decades of tireless advocacy and unshakable pride in his hometown earned him the affectionate nickname “Mr. Greensboro,” reflecting his enduring commitment to the city’s growth and spirit;

WHEREAS, Melvin leadership, vision, and love for his hometown transformed Greensboro in countless ways, from revitalizing civic traditions like the Greensboro Holiday Parade, to championing educational, cultural, and recreational opportunities that will benefit future generations;

WHEREAS, Melvin believed in people and measured them not by circumstance but by character, mentoring countless individuals and offering opportunity and second chances to many whose lives he touched;

WHEREAS, Melvin devotion to family was unwavering; he was a loving husband, father, and grandfather who found joy in “Super Saturdays,” in time spent at Lake Philpott, Smith Mountain Lake, and Pawleys Island, and in creating memories that will live forever in the hearts of his family;

WHEREAS, Melvin's passions for golf, sports, and community connected him to others through shared experiences, whether cheering for the UNC Tar Heels, the Greensboro Grasshoppers, or playing a round of golf with his lifelong friends;

WHEREAS, even in illness, Jim never lost his drive or his optimism, continuing to advocate for projects that strengthened his beloved city, embodying his personal motto: EGBAR – Everything's Gonna Be All Right;

WHEREAS, Melvin's life of faith, leadership, integrity, and generosity leaves a lasting legacy that will continue to inspire all who follow his example; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO:

1. That the Greensboro City Council honors and celebrates the life of Edwin Samuel "Jim" Melvin, for his extraordinary contributions to his family, his church, his community, and the City of Greensboro.
2. That a copy of this Resolution shall be presented to the family of Jim Melvin a token of gratitude for his civic leadership, public service, and love of community.

RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF TIFANIE L. RUDD

WHEREAS, the community lost an outstanding community leader with the passing of Tifanie L. Rudd on June 11, 2025, whose dedication to service and commitment to empowering others left a meaningful impact on the City of Greensboro;

WHEREAS, born on July 20, 1971, in Burgaw, North Carolina, and relocated to Greensboro, NC at an early age; graduated from James B. Dudley High School, and later attended Bennett College and Grace Christian College Theological Seminary; she earned degrees in Divinity and Christian Counseling, achievements that reflected her passion for mentorship and community engagement;

WHEREAS, she became a certified Life Coach and the CEO of M 8 2 Rise (Made to Rise); empowered individuals through mentorship, faith-based guidance, and personal development initiatives designed to help people overcome adversity and embrace resilience;

WHEREAS, Tifanie actively contributed to civic leadership through service on numerous boards and commissions, including the Greensboro Board of Adjustment, the Board of Directors for Greensboro Academy, People to People Liaison, and the Greensboro Fire Relief Fund; where she lent her voice, expertise, and compassion to the strengthening of community institutions;

WHEREAS, she played an essential role in the City of Greensboro's 500 Jobs for Youth Employment Initiative and collaborated closely with community safety and policing partners on initiatives that expanded opportunities, and supported youth engagement;

WHEREAS, Tifanie was an engaged member of Core Community Connections, a collaborative team of dedicated neighborhood volunteers whose mission is to improve the lives of Greensboro residents by transforming the community one neighborhood at a time; a mission she embraced through active involvement, and a heart for grassroots impact;

WHEREAS, she was widely recognized for her devotion to workforce development, economic mobility, and empowerment, contributions that earned admiration from organizations such as Guilford Works Workforce Development Board and the Welfare Reform Liaison Project, where her advocacy helped create meaningful pathways for employment and advancement;

WHEREAS, her influence extended into public leadership through her service as Campaign Manager to Council Member Goldie Wells; she offered strategic guidance, and unwavering support that strengthened community-centered governance and civic participation;

WHEREAS, the life of Tifanie L. Rudd was marked by service, faith, and a profound commitment to uplifting individuals and communities; she leaves a legacy that continues to inspire leaders, organizations, and residents throughout Greensboro; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO:

1. That the Greensboro City Council hereby recognizes and honors the remarkable life and enduring contributions of Tifanie L. Rudd, and extends its deepest sympathies to all who were touched by her mentorship, and unwavering dedication to the betterment of Greensboro.
2. That a copy of this Resolution shall be presented to the family of Tifanie L. Rudd as a testament of profound gratitude for her service to this community.

RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE ADVOCACY OF COUNCIL MEMBER SHARON MELVIN HIGHTOWER TO ADVANCE OPPORTUNITIES FOR MINORITY AND WOMEN-OWNED BUSINESSES

WHEREAS, in 2013, Sharon Melvin Hightower was sworn in as the City Council representative for Greensboro's District 1, committing herself to public service and the advancement of equitable opportunities for all residents;

WHEREAS, Council Member Hightower immediately emerged as a leading voice for Minority and Women-Owned Businesses (MWBEs), championing policies and initiatives designed to expand access, remove systemic barriers, and strengthen economic participation throughout the City of Greensboro;

WHEREAS, she has consistently advocated for increased transparency, accountability, and investment in the City's MWBE program, resulting in strengthened reporting practices, expanded outreach, and improved participation outcomes across procurement categories;

WHEREAS, recognizing that meaningful progress required broader legislative authority, Council Member Hightower supported efforts at the state level, including Senate Bill 292 Greensboro Small Business Enterprise Program, to enable Greensboro to establish a Small Business Enterprise program and further local capacity to support historically underrepresented businesses;

WHEREAS, her leadership has inspired continued collaboration among City staff, community partners, business owners, and statewide stakeholders, contributing to measurable improvements in contracting opportunities and reinforcing Greensboro's commitment to economic inclusion; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GREENSBORO:

1. That the City Council hereby recognizes and expresses its profound appreciation to Councilwoman Sharon Melvin Hightower for her unwavering advocacy, leadership, and dedication to advancing Minority and Women-Owned Business opportunities, and affirms the City's continued commitment to equity-focused economic development.

A. Call To Order

These Work Session City Council minutes are a general account of the November 6, 2025 meeting. For full details of discussions, the meeting video can be located on the City of Greensboro website at <https://www.greensboro-nc.gov/government/city-council/council-meetings>.

This City Council work session of the City of Greensboro was called to order at 2:03 P.M on the above date in the Plaza Level Conference Room of the Melvin Municipal Office Building.

Mayor Vaughan confirmed all Councilmembers in attendance. Mayor Vaughan stated Councilmember Hightower, Councilmember Matheny, and Councilmember Wells was absent.

City Manager Trey Davis made opening remarks.

B. Presentations

B.1 2025-893 Minimum Housing Standards

Brent Ducharme, Senior Assistant City Attorney, delivered a PowerPoint presentation on the proposed amendments to Section 11-48, which outlines the Powers and Duties of the Minimum Housing Standards Commission.

During the presentation, Mr. Ducharme provided background information on the Minimum Housing Standards Commission and its operations. He reviewed the proposed amendments in detail, specifically highlighting the removal of the section on the study of rental rates. Additionally, he explained the quasi-judicial process outlined in the current language.

A discussion ensued about who should be responsible for studying rental rates and how code enforcement and the Minimum Housing Standards Commission can collaborate effectively.

(A copy of the PowerPoint Presentation is filed in Exhibit Drawer H, No 38., which is hereby referred to and made a part of these minutes.)

B.2 2025-894 Regional Water and Sewer Discussion

Mike Borchers, Director of Water Resources, delivered a PowerPoint Presentation focused on long-term strategic planning and regionalization of wastewater.

Mr. Borchers detailed the current system capacity, ongoing planning initiatives, and the projected demand. He highlighted future planning for growth allocation. Mr. Borchers reviewed the ongoing regionalization efforts and outlined the current inter-local agreements. Mr. Borchers gave an overview of regional water resources and associated infrastructure, as well as the PTRWA strategic planning. Mr. Borchers noted the next steps for completing the Master Planning Study.

A discussion took place regarding the Regionalization Plan and next steps to support the ongoing efforts for PTRWA.

(A copy of the PowerPoint Presentation is filed in Exhibit Drawer H, No.38 , which is hereby referred to and made a part of these minutes)
