 - D. Justin Thacker, Deputy Finance Director
 1. Request approval to increase Health Insurance fund $2,000,000 to cover estimated expenditures through June 30, 2026 and the liability year-end entry for claims incurred but not yet paid. Currently, claims for medial and prescription are 20.32% higher through April 2026 in comparison to the same time last fiscal year. There will be an additional prescription rebate check, along with additional revenues from stop/loss insurance coverage, that will further help cover the additional costs for the claims in excess of stop/loss coverage. As of April 2026, expenditures in the fund exceeded revenues $2,040,435.58.

2. Request consideration of approval to increase the Fire District Special Revenue Fund budget by $7,850 to cover higher North Carolina Vehicle Tax System (NCVTS) collection fees resulting from motor vehicle tax collections exceeding FY 2026 original budget estimates. The additional expense is fully offset by increased motor vehicle tax revenue.
